

---

Transcript 文字稿:

The demilitarized zone between North and South Korea is the most heavily fortified border on earth.

But the south is planning to open a new eco-tourism site along its frontier with North Korea.

The buffer zone has been tightly restricted for more than 50 years creating an untouched nature reserve.

They hope to rebrand the area as a place of peace, not war.

Vocabulary 词汇:

demilitarized zone	非军事区
fortified	戒备森严的
eco-tourism	生态旅游
buffer zone	缓冲区
rebrand	重塑形象

中文文字稿:

位于韩国和北朝鲜之间的非军事区是地球上戒备最森严的边界。

但是韩国正在计划在与北朝鲜交界处开设一个新的生态旅游点。

过去 50 年来，这个缓冲区一直被严格控制，创造了一个世外自然保护区。

他们希望这一地区将能代表和平，而不是战争。

Watch this video online: Tourism amongst the tanks <http://bbc.in/JYZquY>

Exercise 练习:

以下练习中的语句全部选自于 BBC 其他网页。

请从下面的词汇表里选择答案来完成句子。

注意：你可能需要改变单词的时态来完成句子。

demilitarized zone / fortified / eco-tourism / buffer zone / rebrand

1. The presidential palace is a heavily _____ compound where the most senior government officials, including the president, have their offices.
2. President Assad is facing growing pressure from Turkey for some kind of action, perhaps involving a protected _____ or corridor, inside Syria.
3. July 1953: the two sides negotiate a ceasefire and thousands of prisoners from each side cross the newly drawn _____ on the border.
4. In trying to _____ himself as a formidable national leader and trying to get an image makeover, Mr Modi, many analysts believe, is walking a tightrope.
5. In Penghu, Taiwan, residents are developing _____ - taking advantage of the area's scenic beauty. Because of this, more young people are moving back to open small businesses such as bed and breakfast hotels, or to work as tour guides.

Answers 答案:

1. The presidential palace is a heavily fortified compound where the most senior government officials, including the president, have their offices.

2. President Assad is facing growing pressure from Turkey for some kind of action, perhaps involving a protected buffer zone or corridor, inside Syria..

3. July 1953: the two sides negotiate a ceasefire and thousands of prisoners from each side cross the newly drawn demilitarized zone on the border.

4. In trying to rebrand himself as a formidable national leader and trying to get an image makeover, Mr Modi, many analysts believe, is walking a tightrope.

5. In Penghu, Taiwan, residents are developing eco-tourism - taking advantage of the area's scenic beauty. Because of this, more young people are moving back to open small businesses such as bed and breakfast hotels, or to work as tour guides.